SOURCES OF CONTRIBUTIONS

The Plan was established and is maintained pursuant to Collective Bargaining Agreements between Local Union No. 3, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, 158-11 Harry Van Arsdale Jr. Avenue, Flushing, NY 11365, (“Union”) and New York Electrical Contractors Association, Inc., 1430 Broadway, 8th Floor, New York, NY 10018, Association of Electrical Contractors, Inc., 11-51 47 Avenue, P.O. Box 1707, Long Island City, NY 11101. Contributions made to the Plan as a result of the May 13, 2004 Collective Bargaining Agreement ceased effective the week ending December 29, 2004. Employers who were not members of the two associations but were obligated to participate pursuant to other Collective Bargaining Agreements ceased making contributions to the Plan effective March 2, 2005 based upon the directive of the Trustees.

ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION IN THE PLAN

Any individual represented by the Union was eligible to become a Participant in the Plan on the first day that an employer was obligated by a Collective Bargaining Agreement to contribute to the Plan on his or her behalf. Any individual who maintains an account balance in this Plan is an eligible Participant.

PARTICIPANTS’ ACCOUNTS

Each Participant’s account shall be reduced as withdrawals are made. The account of each Participant shall be adjusted based on the balance as of March 31 and September 30 of every plan year to reflect the amount of income or loss, appreciation or depreciation in the value of the assets, and expenses incurred in administering the Plan. All Participants have a fully vested, nonforfeitable interest in their account as of their first day of participation in the Plan.

BENEFITS UNDER THE PLAN

1. Supplementary Unemployment Benefits

In the event that any Participant becomes unemployed, the Trustees, to the extent funds are available for this purpose, shall authorize the payment of up to $777 per week to such Participant from the Participant's account for each week during which the Participant is unemployed. For purposes of eligibility for this benefit, "unemployed" may be defined in the same manner as it is defined in the New York State Unemployment Insurance Law. The Plan may require evidence to substantiate that unemployment benefits have been received from New York State prior to distributing benefit payments. If a Participant is required to receive supplementary unemployment benefits from the Vacation / Holiday / Unemployment Plan but does not have sufficient funds, he or she may elect to receive distribution from this Plan to the extent funds are available from their account.

2. Supplementary Workers' Compensation Benefits

Effective August 1, 2007, in the event that a Participant is injured while employed and is entitled to Workers' Compensation benefits, the Trustees, to the extent funds are available for this purpose, shall authorize a payment of up to $400 per week from the Participant's account for the same period during which such Participant receives Workers' Compensation benefits. Those Participants who are not eligible for the Supplemental Workers' Compensation benefit payable from the Electrical Employers Self Insurance Safety Plan may withdraw up to $650 weekly, to the extent funds are available from their account.

3. Supplementary Disability Benefits

Effective August 1, 2007, in the event that a Participant becomes entitled to Disability benefits, as provided for by the New York State Disability Benefits Law, the Trustees, to the extent funds are available for this purpose, shall authorize a payment of up to $400 per week from the Participant's account for the same period during which such Participant receives Disability benefits. In the event a Participant exhausts the statutory maximum Disability benefit, satisfactory medical evidence of continuing disability must be submitted to continue payments. Those Participants who are not eligible for the Supplemental Disability benefit payable from the Electrical Employers Self Insurance Safety Plan may receive up to $650 weekly, to the extent funds are available from their account.

4. Supplementary Economic Assistance Benefits

In the event that a Participant requires economic assistance to pay hospitalization, medical, surgical, prescription drug, approved over the counter drugs or dental bills, which are not otherwise covered under health insurance for the Participant and the Participant's family (unmarried children up to 19 years of age; and to full-time, unmarried dependent students attending accredited institutions of higher learning, up to age 25) or, COBRA, Medicare Part B and Long Term Care premiums, the Trustees, to the extent funds are available for this purpose, shall authorize payment from the Participant's account to the Participant for said expenses.

In addition, a Participant may request to receive reimbursements for COBRA payments made to any health plan as well as for paid health premiums for any eligible person or family dependent, to the extent funds are available from the participant's account. If a COBRA payment was made on behalf of an ex-spouse, the Participant or any other eligible dependent, the Participant will be obligated to include a copy of the cancelled check to document the remittance.

Retirees and their spouses who pay the Medicare Part B premium will be eligible for reimbursement upon the submission of Form SSA-1099, which is the annual benefit statement furnished by the Social Security Administration. Reimbursements will be distributed on an annual basis and may be made to the extent funds are available from the Participant's account.

The Plan will also allow for reimbursement of Long Term Care premiums paid to an insurance company for qualified Long Term Care, subject to Internal Revenue Code limits.

Participants and their eligible dependents may submit reimbursement claims for certain over-the-counter medications pursuant to IRS regulations. Example categories of medicines that are eligible for reimbursement under IRS Code 213 (a) (1) include:

Allergy Medicine	Motion Sickness Pills
Analgesics	Muscle/Joint Pain Relief (e.g. Ben Gay)

Participants must submit an original itemized receipt detailing the name of the medicine when applying for reimbursement for prescription and approved over the counter medicines.

The Trustees, to the extent funds are available for this purpose, shall authorize payment from the Participant’s account to the Participant. Participants should not make an application for prescription and over-the-counter drug reimbursements until the aggregate of their claim is at least one hundred dollars ($100.00). If a lesser amount than one hundred dollars ($100.00) is accumulated during the calendar year, the Participant may submit for such lesser amount at the beginning of each December.

All distributions made to reimburse for the eligible and approved medical expenses will not be subject to taxation.

The maximum amount of the eligible reimbursable expenses shall not exceed $10,000. Eligible reimbursable expenses include adoption fees, court costs, attorney fees and other directly related expenses.

DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARIES

You may designate one or more beneficiaries who will be entitled to the payment of benefits from your account upon your death. Your spouse must be your beneficiary if you are married, unless you provide the Plan Administrator with one of the following:

1. Written, notarized statement on the Plan's form from you and your spouse agreeing that your spouse will not be your beneficiary and naming another person or persons as beneficiary; or

2. Written, notarized statement on the Plan's form that you are either not married or you are married but cannot locate your spouse to get consent to the designation, or you are legally separated or abandoned and have a court order to such effect. This statement must be accompanied by any additional evidence or affidavits requested by the Plan Administrator.

If you are married, your spouse must consent to the specific beneficiary you name. You may change your beneficiary at any time during your lifetime. However, if you are married, you must obtain your spouse's consent to all changes to your beneficiary designation.

For purposes of this Plan, a spouse is the person to whom you are legally married; provided, however, that pursuant to Federal law, the Plan does not recognize same-sex marriages. The Plan will comply with a Qualified Domestic Relations Order ("QDRO") regardless of the beneficiary designation.

Designation of Beneficiary forms can be obtained from the Plan Administrator. A designation of beneficiary form shall only become effective upon its receipt by the Plan Administrator. The last effective designation form actually received by the Plan Administrator shall replace all prior designations. An effective designation of a beneficiary shall remain in effect only if the designated beneficiary survives the Participant.

If a Participant made a designation before January 1, 1985 or before being married and did not designate his or her spouse, then, upon the Participant's death, if he or she is survived by an eligible spouse, his or her account balance will be divided with 50% being disbursed to the surviving spouse and the remainder paid to the designated beneficiary.

If a married Participant obtains a divorce, the divorce does not automatically revoke a previous designation of a Participant's spouse as beneficiary unless the Participant remarries, in which case the current surviving spouse is the married Participant's beneficiary and will receive 50% of any remaining account balance unless the current spouse has waived his or her right as the sole beneficiary as described above. Participants who wish to change their beneficiary following a divorce, or for other reasons, must submit to the Plan Administrator a new Designation of Beneficiary form. The Plan will not pay benefits based upon a Designation of Beneficiary form submitted to any other employee benefit plan.

If a Participant fails to designate a beneficiary, or a beneficiary dies before the Participant, the benefits shall be paid to a survivor of the highest priority as listed below:

1. surviving spouse
2. children of the deceased Participant
3. grandchildren of the deceased Participant
4. parents of the deceased Participant
5. brothers and sisters of the deceased Participant
6. estate of the deceased Participant

If there is more than one eligible priority survivor in the same class, benefit payments will be equally divided among such persons.

CLAIMS PROCEDURE

The Plan Administrator shall make each claim determination in a uniform and non-discriminatory manner. Within 90 days after the Plan Administrator receives the claim, the Plan Administrator will grant the claim, deny the claim, or notify the Participant, former Participant, or beneficiary (Claimant) that special circumstances require an extension of time to process the claim. The extension of time cannot exceed 180 days from the date of the original request.

Within 30 days after denying any benefit under the Plan, the Plan Administrator shall send the Claimant written notice (notice of denial) by certified mail to the Claimant's last address of record with the Plan. The notice shall state that the claim for benefits was denied, and the specific reasons for denial, making reference to the Plan provisions upon which the denial was based. It shall also describe the materials or information, which, if provided, would allow the Claimant to perfect the claim and shall also state why this information is needed. The notice of denial shall advise the Claimant that the Claimant may file a written appeal of the denial within 60 days after receiving the notice of denial. In pursuing an appeal, the Claimant or the Claimant's representative may review pertinent documents and submit issues and comments in writing. Within 60 days after filing the appeal, the Plan Administrator shall notify the Claimant in writing of its decision on the appeal, or that special circumstances require an extension of time to process the appeal. The extension cannot exceed 120 days from the date the Claimant files the appeal.

The Plan Administrator and the Trustees shall have full discretionary authority to determine eligibility for benefits and to interpret and construe the Plan's terms and provisions. The findings of the Trustees or the Plan Administrator shall be conclusive and binding on all parties and shall be upheld in court unless found to be arbitrary or capricious.

PLAN AMENDMENT

The Plan may be amended from time to time and at any time by the Trustees, subject to the terms of the Collective Bargaining Agreement.

PLAN TERMINATION

The Plan can be terminated upon the unanimous consent of all Trustees, and the parties to the CBA.

If the Plan terminates, every Participant or beneficiary of a deceased Participant will have a nonforfeitable right to receive the balance of money in the Participant's account. Any unpaid portion of a deceased Participant's death benefits will be paid to beneficiaries.

The Plan is an employee welfare benefit plan.

ALIENATION OF BENEFITS

As a general rule, a Participant or beneficiary may not assign, sell, dispose or transfer any amounts in his contribution account before receiving them. If you do so, your actions will have no effect.

The primary exception is provided for under the Retirement Equity Act of 1984. The Plan may be required to pay all or a part of your contribution account to your spouse, ex-spouse, children or other dependents if ordered to do so by a court of law as part of a divorce, separation, support or other domestic relations proceeding. The Trustees of the Plan have promulgated rules to determine whether an order served upon the Plan is a Qualified Domestic Relations Order with which it must comply. You may request a copy of this procedure from the Plan Administrator.

STATEMENT OF ERISA RIGHTS

As a Participant in the Additional Security Benefits Plan of the Electrical Industry you are entitled to certain rights and protections under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). ERISA provides that all Plan Participants shall be entitled to:

Receive Information About Your Plan and Benefits

- Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office and at other specified locations, such as worksites and union halls, all documents governing the plan, including insurance contracts and Collective Bargaining Agreements, and a copy of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) filed by the plan with the U.S. Department of Labor and available at the Public Disclosure Room of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.
- Obtain, upon written request to the Plan Administrator, copies of documents governing the operation of the plan, including insurance contracts and Collective Bargaining Agreements, and copies of the latest annual report (Form 5500 Series) and updated summary plan description. The Administrator may make a reasonable charge for the copies.
- Receive a summary of the Plan's annual financial report. The Plan Administrator is required by law to furnish each Participant with a copy of this summary annual report.

Prudent Actions by Plan Fiduciaries

In addition to creating rights for Plan Participants ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of the employee benefit plan. The people who operate your Plan, called "fiduciaries" of the Plan, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other plan Participants and beneficiaries. No one, including your employer, your union, or any other person, may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a welfare benefit or exercising your rights under ERISA.

Enforce Your Rights

If your claim for a welfare benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you have a right to know why this was done, to obtain copies of documents relating to the decision without charge, and to appeal any denial, all within certain time schedules.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce the above rights. For instance, if you request a copy of plan documents or the latest annual report from the Plan and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a Federal court. In such a case, the court may require the Plan Administrator to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the administrator.

If you have a claim for benefits which is denied, or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or Federal court. If it should happen that plan fiduciaries misuse the plan's money, or if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a Federal court. The court will decide who should pay court costs and legal fees. If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees, for example, if it finds your claim is frivolous.

Assistance with Your Questions

If you have any questions about your Plan, you should contact the Plan Administrator. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan administrator, you should contact the nearest office of the Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, listed in your telephone directory or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210. You may also obtain certain publications about your rights and responsibilities under ERISA by calling the publications hotline of the Employee Benefits Security Administration.

PLEASE NOTE THAT COPIES OF THE TRUST AGREEMENT ARE AVAILABLE FOR YOUR INSPECTION DURING REGULAR BUSINESS HOURS IN THE OFFICE OF THE PLAN ADMINISTRATOR.
